

electronic NATO Ammunition DataBase

September 2016

Introducing ...

... a Powerful ammunition-dedicated search tool, covering more than 435,000 items held in the NATO inventories.

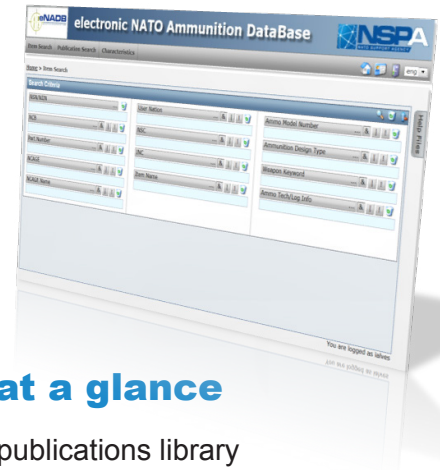

Technical and logistics information on ammunition used by NATO and non-NATO nations.

Secure web-based database, hosted and maintained by NSPA.

24/7 internet access.

Data updated regularly throughout the year.

User interface in English and French.

eNADB a Unique Tool Valuable information source

- Demilitarization and Supply Activities
- Transportation, Storage and Disposal
- Logistic Support to Multinational Forces
- Interchangeability

eNADB architecture

- Interchangeability data (NATO Ammunition Reporting Code (NARC) description, Ammunition Type, etc.)
- Technical data (UN Serial Numbers, Hazard Classification Codes, Muzzle Velocity, etc.)
- Logistics data (Net Explosive Content, Package Quantity, Shipping Name, etc.)
- Links to NATO ammunition publications and related documentation
- Includes over 450 ammunition-related publications

Features at a glance

- Ammunition publications library
- Links between NSNs and publications
- Database reports can be printed and exported to other software applications
- Multi-field search, with Boolean operators, on:
  - NATO Stock Number
  - Item Name
  - Manufacturer
  - User Country
  - Part Number
  - Model Number
  - Weapon Keyword
  - Design Type
  - Publication Title
- And other search features

Available to authorized government and commercial entities on an annual subscription basis.